

LENA DAVIS

January 3, 1965 - April 4, 2020

Ms. Lena Ethel Davis was born to Mr. William Weakly and Lena Ethel Baker on January 3, 1964 ; she departed April 4, 2020. Who would have known that Mrs. Baker would give birth to her baby girl the day her birth? Lena attended Baltimore City Public Schools where she earned her High School Diploma and a certificate in Geriatric Care in providing assistance for the elderly. In 2006-2007, Lena retired from the Baltimore Symphony orchestra, also known as the International Cultural Center , also known the “BSO”, where she dedicated 18 years to the International Cultural Center of Music and Art. Lena was invited to worship at First Charity Baptist Church from her long-life friend, Gail Davis. That invitation sparked her membership at First Charity Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Hollis C. Neal. After receiving her right hand fellowship, Lena began her work in the church as a usher, where she believed it was her calling. Lena was a gentle soul with warm heart and had a loving spirit and personality. Lena leaves to cherish her siblings, Mark Davis, Donna Davis, and Channelle Ricketts. Children, Michael Lewis, Gerald Baker, and Jackie Lewis, Lena also leaves to cherish a host of grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.

“ Lena, we love and miss you so much. You were mom's best friend, companion and caretaker. You gave your all. Your love and compassion for mom was obvious. You thought of her when you shopped. You brought her treats. You showed love in all you did and said. You were a caring person. We know you loved the Lord and have found joy, peace and everlasting life. Gone are matters that caused you stressed, your illness, aches and pains. Yes, we certainly loved you and will miss you tremendously, but rejoice in the reward and love you now embrace.

Lena, you are one of a kind.

Love, Areh and Mama (Marie Chavis)
