

Lena Mae Henley

July 28, 1916 - July 15, 2009

Lena M. Henley, the daughter of the late Annie and Clarence Kellam, was born in Accomack County, Virginia on July 28, 1916. She went home to be with Jesus on July 15, 2009. At a very early age, Lena's parents moved to Baltimore, MD, where she attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. Lena joined Unity United Methodist Church in 1929. Being a member of Unity was truly a passion for her and she served in many capacities, including singing in the choir, working with the clothes closet and food pantry, serving as chairperson of the Women's Day Committee and in any other capacity in which she could use her gifts to help others. Her regular attendance and faithful service continued until her health failed in July, 1996. In 1932, Lena married Joseph Henley. Together, they attended Unity until he passed away in 1981. Left to cherish fond memories of Lena are: cousins,, Elizabeth Budd, Martina Beckett, Bessie Strand (Preston), Vernon (Duke) Williams, Vernice Clark and Edward Clark; nieces, Lorraine Morrell, Aurelia Bell (Carl) and Lillie Mae Morrell; goddaughters, Madeline Coxson and Millie Rice (Paul); and a host of other relatives and friends.
