“ To the pitman family my deepest condolence at this difficult time, Auntie Lendell will be greatly missed one thing about auntie she kept a beautiful smile on her face you could come to Auntie at any given time and tell her your problems she will smile and say it will be okay. You no God right well it will be okay. Auntie Lendell was a great woman of God I met Auntie Lendell back in the 80s when I met my sweetheart Charles Pittman (RIP LaLa). Auntie took me right in as family Auntie shared a impact on all of our lives Auntie was the greatest babysitter when you went to Auntie house you know you didn't act up anymore. Auntie I'm so glad I got to see you before you decide to go to heaven but one day sweet Jesus I will meet you at the Golden Gates of heaven rest on my auntie shine down on us. My heart is broken so sad to see you leave us but we know you in a better place 💔💔💔💔😭. Auntie love you forever and ever
