“ Please accept my condolences on your loss. Death leaves such a tremendous gap in our hearts, because it's so hard to say goodbye to someone you love. Jehovah God, and his son, Jesus, have so much love and compassion for us. That is why when Jesus was on the earth he raised so many people back to life. He raised up a 12-year old girl, and the man Lazarus who had been dead for 4 days. Imagine the happiness they felt on seeing their loved ones again. Speaking about the little girl, John5:42 says, "And taking the hand of the young child he said to her, "Maiden I say to you, get up! "And immediately the maiden rose and began walking for she was 12 years old." "And at once they were beside themselves with ecstasy." So in the future Jesus will resurrect many more who have died according to John5 :28,29. Please find comfort in God's promises, because he is a fulfiller of promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly calls death our enemy. That same verse reveals that death will be destroyed one day. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 declares- “..there is going to be a resurrection..” That will take place in a new world with the hope of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##
