

Lennard Curtis Benjamin

November 6, 1981 - June 23, 2005

Lennard Curtis Benjamin was born to the late Jacqueline Day and Richard Benjamin on November 6, 1981 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called Lennard home on Thursday, June 23, 2005. Lennard received his education at Mergenthaler Vocational Technical High School where he played basketball, a sport which he excelled in. Upon graduating from high school, he joined the U.S. Army. After returning from the services, he attended Baltimore City Community College and planned on transferring to Morgan State University where he was to continue his four year degree. Lennard was employed at Giant Food Store. He also was a local talent in the modeling and fashion industry and featured as a guest model on Black Entertainment Television (BET). Lennard was a spiritual individual. He attended Saint Ann's Roman Catholic Church and Sunday school. He served as an alter server and was an active member of Saint Ann's Youth Group (SAY G). "Ox" as he was affectionately known, worked hard at everything he did never losing focus. Lennard was a deep thinker and had an opinion for everything, frequently debating with others. His first love was reading. He wrote many poems and musical lyrics, which contributed to his philosophies on life. Lennard Curtis Benjamin, leaves to mourn his brother Lamar Wills, his sister, Morgan Benjamin; his father, Richard Lennard Curtis Benjamin; grandmothers, Susie Day and Mirlene Benjamin-Witherspoon. His aunts, Evelyn Horton-Brown, Risa Jackson, Angela Day-Scott, Charlene and Linda Day, Ingrid Miller and Marion Hutton. His uncles, Lawrence, David, Mark, Andre Day, and Roosevelt

Benjamin, a host of cousins, relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy is with you during this time of great lost. It is always very hard to cope with the lost of a loved one. It is so important for us all to know we have a comfort, a comfort of a loving God who cares so very much about us. This is why he lets us know according to his word the bible that death will no longer have a place among the living. Jehovah will turn all the negative effects of death away from us all. Jehovah says according to Isaiah 45:18 he created the earth to be inhabited. Psalms 115:16 says he gives the earth to man. Why would God do such a thing because Jehovah is a God of love 1John 4:8 and being a loving God who loved us first he makes these provisions for those loving him that the righteous will reside upon the earth forever stated at Psalms 37:29. So, being God's purpose for us is to live forever than there is truly no place for death to reside among the living. That is why at Rev. 21: 3, 4 states death will be no more... and the things that causes death will be no more. Jehovah will also correct the damage of death by resurrecting all those who have died according to John 5:28, 29. What a joyous occasion when we will be able to enjoy the lives of those we love once again. This is Jehovah's promised hope from the beginning of mans creations. The hope of everlasting life on earth. Titus 1:2 May this bring comfort to your wounded heart.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The scriptures give us great comfort in these trying times. One such scripture is found at Isaiah 66:13 where it says “Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting YOU people; Please draw this comfort from the God of all comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To Angie and the entire Day Family, Our hearts, love and prayers go out to you and your family. Healing happens slowly over weeks, months, years, and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##Brenda Royster and The Thornton and Lewis Family##imported-end##
