“ To the family of Horse:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ We would like to express our condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us in 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing." He even promises a resurrection for those sleeping in their graves. As we are doing, please hold that resurrection hope ever closer to your hearts. Sincerely, Linn & Family

“ I am sorry for your loss and I extend my condolences to your family. The Bible provides a comforting message for families that are grieving. Acts 24:15 says that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. It's comforting to know that we can have the opportunity to be with our loved ones again, here on the earth, under peaceful and righteous conditions.(Psalms 37:9,11,29) Until that time, read God's word the Bible for guidance, strength and hope.
