

Lenora C. Spence

June 13, 1954 - May 28, 2009

LENORA "POPPY" C. SPENCE-LITTLE, daughter of the late Jerome and Carolyn Spence, was born on June 13, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was called home to be with the Lord on May 28, 2009, after a brief illness. Lenora accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized into the Church of Christ. Lenora received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked as Physician's Assistant and treated all patients with outstanding care. She enjoyed being around her grandchildren, crocheting and making everyone laugh. She leaves to cherish her precious memory: twin daughters, Tamula and Tabatha Harris; five grandchildren, Dominique Harris, Shantia Young, Ashley Williams, Gerald Williams and Gina Marie Young; three sisters, Francine Scott, Geris Spence-Queen, and Charlene Berry; two brothers, Raymond Spence and Isaiah Connor (one brother preceded her in death, William "Billy" Spence); a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my condolences to Ms. Spence's family and friends. The death of a loved one can result in deep sorrow. Even Jesus "gave way to tears" when his friend Lazarus died.(John 11:35) But, please be assured that "the God of all comfort" will help you endure.(2Corinthians 1:3,4) Yes, Daniel 12:2 and Revelation 21:4 are promises that our heavenly Father has made and He cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your heart be comforted by your cherished memories and by God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I send my warm and heartfelt condolences to the family of Lenora. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to grips with, because we want our loved ones here with us always. Will that every be possible? Yes it will not only be possible, but it will be a certainty, because Jehovah, the God of truth has promised wonderful things for those who love and serve him faithfully. His word promises that he will end sickness and will also swallow up death forever. Isiah 33:24, Isiah 25;8. His word also promises that the dead will come to life very soon and will enjoy peace forever. Daniel 12:2 tells us this: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." So the bible compares death will being asleep. That is why why Jesus said these powerful words found at John 5:28,29: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus"s) voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." I"m sure you'll agree that those are wonderful promises from the God who cannot lie. Titus 1:2. If you are interested in learning more about God's wonderful purpose for us, I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address. May the memory of Lenora live on in your hearts forever.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ A tragedy can befall anybody anytime. We are required to express sympathy with the affected person/persons. Most people find it a difficult and awkward task. 'What to say' and 'How to say it' becomes problematic. May the love of those around you help you through the days ahead With Heartfelt Condolences##imported-begin##Diane Abdur-Rahman##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection". May you draw much comfort and strength from this wonderful resurrection hope. And may you draw closer to the ones responsible for this loving hope: Jehovah God and his only-begotten son Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will com out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that God cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
