“ To the Knox family: I am a former student of Mrs. Knox. She was my 5th grade teacher way back in the 80's at Eutaw Marshburn Elementary School in Baltimore. Mrs. Knox was my favorite teacher and I can say today, that her style of teaching and the loving and supportive spirit she exhibited in the classroom has always stuck with me. She was a true example of a teacher who truly cared about her profession, students and community. I am truly saddened to learn of her passing, but I'm sure she is in the loving arms of our Lord and savior.

*Respectfully Submitted,

“ To the family of Ms. Knox, I offer my sincere sympathy. The sorrow you are experiencing now will soon be alleviated. God promises at John 5:28, 29 that all those in the memorial tombs will soon hear his voice and come out. He also lets us know, at John 3:16 and John 17:3 what we must do to witness this grand event. May this wonderful promise give you comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I offer my heartfelt condolences at this time. Lovingly, God holds out the promise of everlasting life for those who love and obey him, and a resurrection back to life for those of our loved ones who have died. First of all at 1st Cor 15:26 He promises to destroy this enemy death, which causes us so much sorrow. Then John 5:28,29 promises that one day all those in the memorial tombs; that is in Jehovah God's memory, will hear Jesus's voice and will come out of those tombs." May your hope be in his promises which never fail, and may the resurrection hope be a comfort to you at this time.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
