“ *When at last I've grown tired and weary
With the toil of many years
I shall go to dwell in Glory,
Far beyond this vale of tears:
I will find my sorrows ended,
And my trials forever o'er,
For the Savior will be with me
He will leave me nevermore.*

*When at least I rise triumphant
To the many mansions fair,
And behold my Savior standing
By the portal over there.
It will be reward sufficient
Just to gaze upon His face,
Just to learn the hidden secret
Of His matchless, saving grace.*
