“ On behalf of the late Aunt Nannie Ivey and cousin Virginia Underdue and family we send our sincere condolences, prayers and love to the Ivey family. Lenwood shares a special place in our family in North Carolina and Baltimore, Md. We were blessed to have such good memories with him. May you also find comfort in keeping those fond memories of him close to you.

God Bless,
Doris Underdue and Family

“ Dr Ivey was thoughtful, intelligent, kind, giving and a man of integrity. I had the pleasure of working with him when I was Director of the Civil Rights Office of Baltimore City. He was a confidante and inspiration.

Sending my deepest condolences to the family.

Lenwood was a Cousin from his Father and Mother side of the family. He was more like my Brother. He was always kind, thoughtful, intelligent, loving and a Christian. Our Sincere Prayers, Heartfelt Condolences to Jeda, Julie, Western, Anne and the entire Family during your hours of Bereavement.

Lovingly Submitted,
Charles and Claudelia Daniel

“ Dr. Ivey was a soft spoken, gentle person as I recall. He and my mother, Elva Edwards, worked together for years, serving the needs of Baltimore City residents who needed uplifting and supports on many levels.

Dr. Ivey was a giant! Well done, Dr. Ivey!
