

Leo Linton Sr.

April 12, 1939 - November 13, 2015

LEO LINTON SR. was born on April 12, 1939, son of the late Edgar and Gertrude Linton in Sumter, South Carolina. He was one of fifteen children born in that union. He departed this earthly life on Friday, November 14, 2015, at Sinai Hospital after a brief illness.

Leo received his education in Sumter, South Carolina. He left Sumter and came to Baltimore, Maryland and made this city his home.

He later married the late Delores Linton and raised five children from that marriage. Leo and Delores had three daughter and two sons. Leo had various jobs from driving Baltimore City trucks, working at the Baltimore Uniform Company and working for Apartment services until her retired. He then met Debbie Lawrence in 1988 at the Baltimore Uniform Company whom he dearly loved. Debbie and Leo enjoyed doing things together, especially going places early in the morning. He married her on June 20, 1997. His hobbies included watching baseball, football, listening to oldies but goodies and of all watching his detective stories. Preceding Leo in death is his daughter, Delores Gertrude Linton (Penny), three sisters and eight brothers.

Leo will truly be missed. He was a happy person always finding something to say to make you laugh and smile. Leo was a loving father, Grandfather, great-grandfather, and devoted brother, brother-in-law, husband, uncle, cousin and friend.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two sisters, Eloise Kelly and Mae Jackson; seven children, Lisa, Leo Jr. (Lee Lee), Leo (Wayne), Linard (Benjamin), William (Jeffrey), Denise, Dwayne; four step-children, Gwynn, Joyce, Rinnie, Wayne; eighteen grandchildren. Kori, Kemeelah, Jeneal, Jennifer, Lea, Don Jr., Marcus, Dwayne Jr., Dominick, Dawanna, Dakira, Destiny, DaShay, Derrick, Miracle, Keira, Jashua, Little Wayne; five great-grandchildren, Kairea, Stephanie, Adonis, Za'Rae, Logan; one sister-in-law, Inez; one son-in-law, Don; other relatives, cousins, neighbors and friends.
