

Leo E. Nwawuba

July 8, 1964 - October 12, 2024

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of LEO NWAWUBA, who departed this life on October 12, 2024. Leo was a cherished and devoted husband, father, son, brother, and friend whose kindness, wit, and generosity touched everyone fortunate enough to know him.

Leo lived a life full of love, curiosity, and adventure. He had an infectious sense of humor and a remarkable ability to light up any room he entered. Leo's passions included, caring for the less privileged and taking care of his family.

His achievements, amongst many, included a successful transportation business. Leo brought dedication and creativity to everything he did.

Leo is survived by his wife, Happiness, Daughters, Adaeze (19) and Chiamaka (15) and a son, Jidenna (7). He is also survived by his biological siblings, Bridget, Raphael, Virginia, Timothy, Victor, Chito and Christy, and his many nephews and nieces, who will forever hold him in their hearts.

His memory will live on in the laughter, stories, and love shared by all who knew him. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations to American Hearts Association/ Foundation, a reflection of Leo's giving nature and compassionate heart.

Omenwanne, Enyi Oha, Ezinwanne, Nne Ij m, Eze Leo as we fondly call you, remain in the Lords Vineyard. We shall deeply, deeply miss you but never forgotten. May your Sweet Soul rest in peace, surrounded by the love you so freely gave to others.
