“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 explains that death is always our enemy. It also lovingly tells us that in God's due time death will be destroyed. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 declares that there will be a "resurrection". The Bible also tells us that at that time there will be no more sickness, death, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5) May you receive much solace and strength from family, friends and the many promises in the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the passing of your loved one. Death unfortunately, is something we can't escape at present, but when we lose someone we love, it tears our heart apart knowing we can't see them no more, or hear their voice, or see their beautiful smile anymore. This is not right, and it was never God's pupose for this to happen to us. That is why he promises to rid the world of this enemy, and bring about a world free from sickness and death in the near future. Isaiah 25:8 tells us that he will swallow up death forever. Also Rev 21:3,4 tells us that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more." Please find comfort in his promises, because he will never fail to fulfill them. May your cherished memories continue to sustain and comfort you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I'm sorry to know you have to bear the loss of a love one. May the God of comfort help you through this time and know he is very much aware of your pain. Yet at the same time we all can rejoice because we know the sting of death is temporary. 1Cor 15:26 states that death will be brought to nothing and the dead will wake up from the ground according to Daniel 12:2. That is truly a wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more,neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." If you would like to know more about this hope found in God's Word. Please, contact me via my email. Sincerely, C.Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte##imported-end##
