“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sadness, for death of a loved one is very hard to deal with. May God's word continue to comfort you . The Bible at Revelation 21:3,4 help us appreciate that "God's is with mankind an he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain anymore". Please take comfort in God's word. For in just a little while death will be swallowed up Isaiah 25:8.##imported-begin##Bernetta Dixon##imported-end##

“ I send my deep sympathy to the family at this most difficult time. Losing a loved one in death is truly heartbreaking, and so very hard to come to terms with. It's hard to believe that we can't see or touch them any longer. God didnt desire this pain and agony for us. He wants all to attain to repentance, and recieve everlasting life. Saddy Adam and Eve passed this legacy of sin and death on to us, but soon Jehovah God will undo all the pain and sorrow we all go through in this life today. Concerning this, 1st Cor 15:22 says: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." Through the ransom sacrifice of Christ Jesus, all will have a chance to recieve a ressurection to everlasting life. John 5:28,29 So please find much comfort in Jehovah's word, because his word never fails. Everything he purposes to do will succeed. Isaiah 55:10,11. May your hearts be strengthened by his word.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
