

Leola White

April 15, 1922 - April 1, 2003

Leola White was born on August 15, 1922 in Johnston County, North Carolina, to the late James Holder and Lue Hinnant. On Tuesday morning, April 1, 2003, the Lord called his Angel Leola home. She attended Richard B. Harrison High School in Selma, North Carolina. She was married to the late William White and never remarried after his death. Leola was known from her jazzy walk, known to many as the Strutter. This was because she was proud of who she was and her profound relationship with the Lord. Leola loved the church and has dedicated her life to the Lord, as a faithful member. Leola served as an organist for various churches. She was also a very talented seamstress. She loved helping people and touched the lives of everyone she came into contact with; she will be greatly missed. Leola White leaves to mourn two sisters, Vara Trice of Baltimore, Maryland and Rebecca Stancil of Atlantic City, New Jersey; one sister-in-law, Catherine Mitchener of Washington, D.C.; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
