

Leola Williams Willis

March 27, 1913 - January 25, 2004

Leola Williams Mitchell Willis, affectionately known to many as “SNOOKIE,” departed this life on January 25, 2004 at 8:55 A.M., at Good Samaritan Nursing Center after a brief illness. Born an only child in Annapolis Maryland where she received her formal education, “SNOOKIE” was a Catholic and attended Saint Jude Church on a regular basis. She later moved to Baltimore where she met and married the late Richard Willis, and of that union, two children were born, Rudolph and Ronald Willis. She was a devoted wife and mother. She resided on Caroline Street for over sixty years until she could no longer care for herself. She lived with her eldest son Ronald for three years until she moved to Good Samaritan Nursing Center. “SNOOKIE” enjoyed being entertained and entertaining others. She was a long-term substitute teacher in a local elementary school as she managed a full house hold. Married to a merchant seaman for over forty years, she provided lodging for her husband’s friends which she developed into a small business “SNOOKIE” was particularly proud of her son Ronald who had duplicated her same level of entrepreneurship on a more extensive scale. She entrusted all her decisions involved with her life to her son Ron. She loved horse races, live theatre and just simple things in life brought her great pleasure. She loved giving advice concerning the better and positive part of the human spirit to all that came in contact with her. Her favorite expression was “If it is to be, it’s up to me.” “SNOOKIE” recognized the value of education and continually encouraged her sons to further their education and be productive citizens.

Leola leaves to cherish in her memory, one devoted son Ronald, a granddaughter, Chriee Willis, a close cousin Samuel Floyd ad a host of family and friend.

Tribute Wall

“ Leola Williams Willis

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Leola Williams Willis

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ To the Family of Leola Willams Willis: I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. May you find comfort in God's many promises recorded in His word the Bible. At John 5: 28 & 29, God has promised a "resurrection". Your love one will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM