

Leomia B. Moses

August 10, 1930 - February 2, 2016

Leomia Brown Moses was born on August 10, 1930 in Morrilton, AK to parents Price Brown and Manmie Brown. She married her husband, Nathaniel Moses on March 23, 1954 in Pascagoula, MS.

She dedicated her life to Jehovah God in Brunswick, ME in 1962. She loved and stayed busy in the work of Jehovah for the remainder of her life. She participated in a multitude of relief work. She loved and knew many of the scriptures of the Bible by heart. Her favorite passage of scripture was Psalm 150 and kept her Bible close at all times. She loved Jehovah and always tried to instill that same love in her children as well as to anyone she met. Anyone who knew her could attest to her strong faith.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Nathaniel Moses, son, Ronald Jay Moses; nephew, Dwayne Moses; brother, William T. Brown; sister, Minnie Phillips; parents, Price and Manmie Brown and in-laws, Maggie and Elonzo Moses.

Left to cherish her memory are her children, Tony Moses, Michael Moses (Jean), Natile' Anderson (Blair), Nina Rose (Michael), Robert Moses (Deanna), her grandchildren: Devin Moses, Dwayne McCants, Katherine Salisbury (William), Alexandria and Alexis Moses; sisters-in-law, Betty Brown and Sadie Moses. A host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
