

Leon Jackson Jr.

August 25, 1931 - March 10, 2011

LEON JACKSON, JR., son of the late Sarah Edward was born August 25, 1931, in Newport News, Virginia. He peacefully devoted this life on March 10, 2011 at St. Agnes Hospital.

He received his education at Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore, Maryland. After graduation, he joined the United States Army where he served admirably for four years. After the military, he worked at General Motors as an Inspector until he retired. Leon loved the Lord and served Him faithfully at Wayland Baptist Church where he was a member of the choir. He later joined the City Temple of Baltimore (Baptist) where he served as a deacon, a Sunday school teacher, and was then named a Charter member.

Leon was educated and active brother of the Masonic family. He belonged to the Worshipful Master of Tuscan Lodge #90; a member of HC Chapter #2; a 33 Mason (October 9, 2000); served as Assistant Grand Secretary; and also served for many years as Chairman of the Masonic Training Committee for his Blue Lodge.

Leon, affectionately known as Papasan to little Darius, loved the Baltimore Ravens, New York Yankees, watching 60 minutes, and engaging in heated debates about politics. He will long be remembered for his warm and affectionate smile and his voicemail recording "May God bless you and heaven smile upon you” he said. And now we know that God has received him and he’s in heaven smiling at us.

Leon was preceded in death by his loving wife, Mamie Jackson. He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Joseph Jackson; daughter, Sandra Young; stepsons, Horace Sims, III (Terra) and Gregory C. Sims, Jr.; brother, Calvin Jackson; grandchildren, Tyra Jackson, Shawn Jackson, Valerie (Humphrey), Walter (Sheilesha) and Anthony; and about fifteen other grand and great-grandchildren; a devoted friend, Patty (Twinkle) O’Neal two very special friends, Pastor Shirley Tisdale and Reverend Gwendolyn Eveans-Chinn (cousin), and a host of other relatives and friends.
