

Leon L. Coleman

March 28, 1929 - January 20, 2005

Leon Lee Coleman, a.k.a "Tea," son of the late Edward and Lula Johnson Coleman was born on March 28, 1929 in Zion, South Carolina. He was one of nineteen siblings. He was educated in Zion public school system and joined the U.S. Army at the age of eighteen. Leon served his country well and was honorably discharged on November 23, 1954. Upon returning to civilian life, Leon settled in Baltimore, Maryland. He became employed with Bethlehem Steel where he was employed for over forty years. His employment there opened the door to many acquaintances and friends, and thirteen weeks of annual vacation, which afforded him the opportunity to travel extensively meeting people all over the country. Through his travel, Leon also practiced one of his other favorite pastimes of photography, and acquired quite a collection of scenic and family photos. Leon also loved to collect fine automobiles and took a great deal of pride in the care of his automobiles. He enjoyed transporting family and friends back and forth. "Tea," everyone's term of endearment for Leon was earned for his love of the beverage. His children and nieces and nephews always looked forward to the arrival of their tall, handsome, "Nat King Cole" look-alike uncle and father with his ever so slight side smile. He brought many smiles to the faces of his children, daughter Debbie and son Leon Kevin. He delighted in witnessing his children grow into mature and responsible adults. As his health declined, his children stepped up their involvement in his life to support and care for him until his death. He leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Deborah Dickerson; son, Leon

Kevin Coleman; and daughter-in-law, Catherine Coleman; grandson, Corey Dickerson; sister, Annie Dawson; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He especially cherished the love and friendship of special friends, Mr. and Mrs. Edward and Dorothy Green and Miss Hattie Newell. Leon will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

Tribute Wall

“ Leon L. Coleman

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Leon L. Coleman

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Another family member has left us. Is now at the Coleman's family Reunion in God's house. Farewell for now to My Great uncle until we meet again love and Peace and may God be with his family.##imported-begin##Dlanna Coleman##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family of Mr. Coleman, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ For You, Uncle T, The God of love and peace shall be with you...2 Corinthians 13:11##imported-begin##Connella Coleman##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM