“ Dear Daddy,

I am the woman I am today, due to you. I give all thanks and praise to the man upstairs for creating you. Things may have not been the best, but seeing your smile made everything amplify. Those poor nights in the ghetto felt like Hollywood, when "Rob Lewis" walked through the door. I am my daddy's child. That's what your sister Patricia said the last time we texted. I see now why you were the way you were; it all makes clear sense now. You always apologized for your wrong doings, and you told me that I was just like you. I get it now.

“ Dear family of Leon. I send you my deepest condolences for your loss. As a teacher of the bible for many years, I have learned that our loving father has a wonderful hope in store for us. It humbles me to know that he cares so very much for us, and went to great lengths to bring about a purpose to end sickness and death once and for all time. He gave us his most beloved Son to bring about an end to all violence, poverty, sickness, and even death. As his word promises: one day noone will say, "I am sick." The people dwelling in the land will be those pardoned for their error." Isaiah 33:24. Another scripture promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever and certainly wipe the tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it.' Isaiah 25:8. Concerning the end of poverty psalm 72:13-16 says in part: He will sorry for the lowly one and the poor one, and the souls of the poor ones he will save. There will come to be plenty of grain on the earth. On the top of the mountains there will be an overflow. Concerning crimer and violence Psalm 37: 10,11 says, And just a little while longer and the wicked one will be no more, and you will certainly give attention to his place and he will not be. But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace. And most wonderful of all the dead will come back to life, because John 5:28,29 promises that they will one day hear Jesus's voice and come out of the memorial tombs. May you be strengthened by these wonderful promises to know that one day you will see your loved one again.

“ I know you don't know me, but I saw Leon's obituary; I wanted to send you my condolences.
As humans, we grieve over the death of a loved one; that's normal, because we know Jesus gave way to tears (John 11:35) after the death of his close friend Lazarus. He demonstrated what resurrection will mean for mankind; in John 11:11, 14-44, "Jesus said to his disciples, 'Lazarus our friend has gone to rest, but I am journeying there to awaken him from sleep.' Luke 23:43 provides us the hope for paradise here on earth, because Jesus stated, "Truly I tell you today, YOU will be with me in Paradise." Jesus statement meant that "All" the earth will be transformed back into a paradise under the rule of Christ as King!
I hope these words serve as encouragement. Remain loyal and keep serving God; you will see Leon again!

“ To my brother Leon, I still remember the times as children you were sent to Virginia for the summer. Our Grandparents did the best they could to take care of us and they were some fun times. I will miss you and knowing that were around if I needed you.

“ (Romans 15:4) For all the things that were written aforetime were written for our instruction, that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.

I am one of the international Bible Students in the area. I would like to send condolences to the family. There is a God of comfort and you can read your Bible so that he can help you during this time in your life. I hope these scriptures help comfort you.

(John 5:28-29) Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.
