

Leon H. Settle

November 17, 1928 - October 22, 2018

Leon Henderson Settle, son of the late Henry and Susie Settle, was born on November 17, 1928, in Baltimore, Maryland.

At an early age Leon suffered an illness which left him hearing impaired and later completely deaf. Leon attended School #176, where he became proficient in lip-reading and expressing himself without words. He completed his course of study in seventh grade.

A "home-body", Leon enjoyed eating, watching television, and spending time with family. He was especially close to his late uncle, James Bruce, and his aunt and devoted guardian for the last thirty years, Doris Bruce Owens. He enjoyed attending Emmanuel Christian Community Church, where he loved to shake hands with fellow parishioners.

Leon leaves to mourn their loss and cherish his memory: two aunts, Doris Bruce Owens and Gwendolyn Bruce, special cousins Earl and William Smith, Don Owens, and Carolyn Bruce, as well as other relatives.
