

Leon T. VanLandingham

September 25, 1952 - July 19, 2002

Leon Thomas VanLandingham was born on September 10, 1952. He was the third child born to the late Margaret J. VanLandingham and Adam J. VanLandingham, Sr. He suddenly departed this life on July 19, 2002 at the age of forty-nine. Leon, fondly known as “champ” to his family and friends, was a member of the Cub Scouts and the Boy Scouts of America. He was educated at Patterson High School, where he graduated on June 16, 1970. Leon had a total of ten years perfect attendance. After high school, he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps. During his twelve year tenure, he was awarded the honor Platoon Series, the Distinguished Service Award and earned an Honorable Discharge. Leon accepted Christ at an early age. He was a devoted Christian and a member of St. Phillips Lutheran Church as a child and a member of Prince of Peace Baptist Church as an adult. He was employed at Western Electric for ten years, Johns Hopkins Hospital as a Security Guard for sixteen years and the Baltimore City Sanitation division for five years until his untimely demise. Leon leaves to cherish his fond memory; one son and one daughter, Maurice and Astrid VanLandingham; six sisters, Dana VanLandingham-Barnes, Star VanLandingham-Lewis, Kaye VanLandingham-Davis, Bessie VanLandingham-Bennett, Omega VanLandingham-Fisher and Ressa VanLandingham-Gates (deceased); two brothers, Adam VanLandingham, Jr. and Lloyd VanLandingham; one sister-in-law, Valerie Mapp-VanLandingham; three brothers-in-law, Ray Davis, Gregg Bennett and Troy Lee Fisher, Jr.; godmother, Mrs. Maple Pittman; godfather,

Mr. Paul Johnson; his children's mothers, Staffney Stroman and Cora Majors; four aunts, Christine Pack, Deborah Scott, Lorraine Johnson and Margaret Murry of Parksley, Virginia; three great-aunts, Melvina Hawkins, Lottie Carter and Maggie Brown; two uncles, William Pack, Sr. and Horace Scott; two special cousins, William Pack, Jr. (Toots) and Sharon Ames Tyler of Melfa, Virginia; twelve nieces, ten nephews, cousins, neighbors and numerous friends who will miss him dearly.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much.###imported-begin###The March Family and Staff###imported-end###
