

Leon Wright

March 15, 1916 - June 4, 2007

Leon Wright, son of Adline V. Ringgold Wright and William James Wright, was born on March 15, 1916 on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in the town of Ridgley. He departed this life on June 4, 2007. Leon was educated in the Caroline County School System. He lived and worked on the Eastern Shore, until he met and married the former Doris White. Lee and his family moved to Baltimore in 1940 in search of a better job for him and a better future for his family. Between the two of them they had four children. Three of them preceded him in death; Delores, Leon Jr. and Melvin. For many years Lee worked at the Esskay Meat Packing Company. He was a kind, quiet person who did not talk a lot. He loved people and liked to help others who needed him. His love of cars earned him the name of Big D, because of a big Desoto car he owned back in the day. Lee also knew and loved the Lord. He lived a full life, never complaining about his health but determined not to let his illness get the best of him. He leaves to cherish his memory one daughter, Betty Baker, eight grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. He also leaves three sisters, Mary Flamer of Ridgeley, Maryland, Marjorie Parker and Emma Weldon both of Baltimore, many nieces, nephews and cousins on the Eastern shore, as well as his many friends at the Allendale Apartments where he lived for many years.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. It is so wonderful that he was able to live a long and full life, but it is God's wonderful purpose for people to live forever. This is why Jesus shed his precious blood, so that we could be forgiven for our sins and have life eternal. Jesus himself said at John 10,10, "I have come so that they might have life and have it in abundance." John 3:16 reminds us, "That God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life." May you find comfort in his promises, and strength to deal with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy at this difficult time for family and friends. Even though your hearts may be weighed down, it is possible to look forward to the wonderful promise stated at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes, Jehovah holds out a wonderful promise for the future. Meditating on comforting Scriptures such as these can ease the pain that this difficult time can bring.##imported-begin##A Robinson##imported-end##
