

Leonard Baker

March 26, 1937 - September 26, 2004

On Sunday, September 26, 2004, Leonard Baker, the son of James S. Baker and Maggie Baker Coleman departed this life at his residence on North Avenue. He was born March 26, 1937 in Halifax County, Virginia and attended the public school there. He moved to Baltimore, Maryland from Virginia when he was in his early twenties and worked in construction. He was retired, after being employed for many years by Harford Construction Company of Joppa, Maryland. He was a very private person. He was close to his sisters and brothers, especially Grace, and was very concerned when he learned that she was hospitalized. He leaves to cherish his memory: sisters-in-law, Grace Baker and Vanessa Coleman; nephews, nieces and a host of other relatives.

“ To the Family: Please accept my sincere condolences. It can be very hard to cope with the death of a loved one. However, may you find comfort from the ...God of Comfort and the Father of Tender mercies, who comforts us in all our tribulation. 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Please continue to find comfort from your family, friends, and the Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##Vanessa Adams##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my belated condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible calls death "the last enemy". That same passage informs us that death will be "brought to nothing". 1 Corinthians 15:26 So right here on earth the enemy death will be taken away. What about our loved ones? The resurrection hope is presented to us for our dead loved ones. Daniel 12:2 states that "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." May these divinely inspired promises give you comfort, peace and strength.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends of Leonard, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
