

Leonard "Trés" Curtis, III

July 4, 1988 - May 9, 2022

Leonard "Trés" Curtis, III was born on July 4, 1988 to Yolanda Bervine and Leonard Curtis, Jr. He was a lifelong Richmond resident and educated in the Richmond Public Schools system. As a young man, Trés was a member of the Boy Scouts and involved in various youth sports programs. As he grew older, he gave his life to Christ through Saint Paul's Baptist Church. Trés was always good with his hands. He worked in the manufacturing industry, earned his forklift license and was most recently an employee of Dominion. One of his first jobs was at Kings Dominion and he was so proud to be independent and earning his own money.

Trés enjoyed cutting hair in his free time, especially that of his sons. He liked watching sports, listening to music, working out, visiting family and friends, and providing endless laughter. Anyone who ever spent time with Trés quickly learned there is one word that describes him best: hilarious! From the time he was a very little boy, he always had others laughing. He liked to joke around and had a smile that lit up a room and your heart. He was very meticulous about how he looked and always punctual. Everything had to look and be done in a certain way. Trés was charismatic and always left an impression on people that he met. He will be truly missed and in the hearts of many forever.

The life and memories of Trés will be cherished by his parents; three sisters: Charmaine Curtis-Redford (Adrian), Chenarda Curtis-Moon (Andrew) and Cyierra Jones, who was also his best friend; six children: Treveon, Daveon, Azariah, Quameira, A'Leia, and Amir; grandmothers Sherry Bervine and Claudette Baker; grandfather Clarence Bervine, Sr. (Gloria); two nieces: Paris Harris and London Wilson-Jones; nephew Germany Wilson; six aunts: Estelle Bervine, Jacqueline Bervine-Hickman, Cassandra Bervine, Amanda Curtis, Cynthia Brown (Ronald), and Charnetta Lester (Kevin); three uncles Clarence Bervine Jr., Pierce Bervine (Georgette), and Theodore Curtis; devoted great aunt Rosa "Honey" Cowles; devoted cousins Sefonia Bervine and Shakeira Bervine; friends DaShara McLaughlin, Crystal McQuinn, Tierra Postell, Alnetta Terry, Wyman Smith and James McLemore; and a host of other great-aunts and uncles, cousins and friends.

“ Dear Tre,my heart is totally broken. I am going to miss your thoughtful andkind acts and above all your smiling face. Over the past seven months we had grown to become mother to son. I am going to miss your morning text messages,telephone calls and your presence.We had grown to understand one another and our love for each other was true.We had made so many plans for this summer after you received your drivers permit.I will tell you now just as I told you in life,I love you and I will continue to take care of Leelee and Amir. You made such as impression on Elijah,Amaya and Amira. You came into my life so quickly and left a great impression. I will continue to pray for you and keep you in my thoughts just as you thought of us daily.Tre,please rest you have earned your wings. Elijah whom you affectionately called Sonson tells everyone that Tre cuts my hair. ♡ Lovely submitted,Rosalyn Terry and family.
