

Leonard Frank King

January 7, 1940 - February 1, 2007

Leon Frank King Jr., the son of the late Leon Frank King Sr. and Julia King, was born January 7, 1940, in Baltimore, Maryland. He quietly departed this life at Frankford Lorien Nursing and Rehabilitation Center of Thursday, February 1, 2007, after a lengthy illness. Leon was fondly known to family and friends as "Bunk." He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He was employed for many years at Canteno Line Services where he worked as a longshoreman. Leon made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend. He was known as a "Joker" and "Teaser," especially by his nieces and nephews. He will be truly missed by his devoted brother, Harold and his loving sister, Louise; who he faithfully called every Tuesday. He leaves to mourn: one sister, Louise Brogden (and a sister who preceded him in death, Delois Johnson); brother, Harold King; sister-in-law, Dorothy King; two aunts, Katie and Barbara Person of Long Island, New York; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends, especially devoted companion, Peggy Ware.

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death to Leonard. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the King's Family .May you all be having peace in the lost of Mr.Leonard. Death bring sorry to one hearts when we lose a dear love one on death. The bible tell us that death is our enemy at 1 Cor.15:26 will be brought to nothing very soon. That will make all of us very happy. Many time words can not express how a person feel when a love one die. The bible can express how our heavenly father feel when we lose a family loved one or friend in death. The hope the bible give is found at Rev.21:3,4: Isa.66:13, Isa. 33:24. I hope the few thoughts have been uplifting to you all. My deepest sympathy. “ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. Death is truly a hurtful thing for the surviving family member, because even though death is something we all have to contend with, none of us look forward to it, because God has put a desire in us to live forever. One day that natural desire will come to fulfillment, because Jehovah has promised to swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. He has given his son Jesus the power to resurrect people, and he brought many back to life while he was here on earth. He raised the 12-year old daughter of an army officer at Mark 5:38-42, and also a man named Lazarus. John 11;17-44. So God's wonderful promises will come true, because Hebrews 6:18 says, "IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR GOD TO LIE". One day we will have the promise of being reunited with our loved ones again come true, and they will have everlasting life in paradise conditions. May those bible thoughts strengthen you and help you too cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. The loss of one we love causes much sorrow and grief for us all. But there is a remedy to this condition of death. It is the resurrection promised by "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort us in all our tribulation" 2 Corinthians 1:3,4. Job 14:14,15 lets us know that God has a "yearning" an earnest longing and desire to resurrect the dead. May you find comfort from these promises in God's word the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
