In Celebration of the Life and Homegoing

Leonard Hubbard

March 10, 1938 - September 23, 2011

Our beloved, Leonard Hubbard entered this world in Brooklyn, New York on March 10, 1938 to the late John and Lottie Hubbard. He was the youngest of five children. He was preceded in death by his daughters Venus Hubbard and Lynette Hubbard and a sister, Emma Ballard.

Leonard was educated in the New York City public school system. After high school, Leonard enlisted in the Air Force. After serving in the Air Force, he went to work for the City of New York. While residing in Brooklyn, he met and married the love of his life, Ida Murrell on August 10, 1985. After retired from the City of New York, Leonard moved his family to Richmond, VA. Although he was retired, he enjoyed staying busy so he went to work for the Country Club of Virginia, where he enjoyed greeting and meeting people every day.

Leonard was a very loyal and dedicated person. Whether it was his family, a friend, his church or work, he was very loyal and would do anything for you. He loved his family. If you had a chance to observe him with his wife Ida, he never left the house without kissing her goodbye and telling her how much he loved her. He didn't live close to his siblings so he made it a point to call each of them every month.

Leonard's favorite hobbies were traveling, playing cards, watching old cowboy movies, boxing and collecting gadgets. If he saw any unique gadget on TV or in the store, he had to have it. He also enjoyed cooking. Leonard was a member of St. Paul Baptist Church in Richmond, VA and served on the Usher Board.

On September 23, 2011, Leonard departed, leaving a void in the lives of the many relatives and friends who both loved and admired him. We will never forget his infectious smile, genuine personality and positive attitude. Leonard is survived by Ida, his loving wife of 26 years; sons, Damon Hubbard, Leonard Hubbard and Christopher Hubbard; daughter, Lynelle Arthur; stepchildren, Dianah Miles, Gwendolyn Miles, Cheryl Hasell and Daniel Nolan; son-in-law, Daniel Arthur; daughter-in-law, Carla Nolan; sisters, Dorothy Johnson and Gladys Oliver; brother, John Hubbard; sister-in-law, Juanita Murrell; a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, co-workers and friends.

“ Leonard oh how we are going to miss you. I will always remember the sweet, gentle man you were. We all gain something from being in yours presents. Thank you my friend.

Nancy Jeanette Dunaway - September 28, 2011 at 11:32 AM

“ Leonard was one of the sweetest men I knew, and he always had a smiling face when he greeted you. I will truly miss him, and I sympathies go out to his family. I consider myself lucky to have know him.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I wanted to give your family some comfort. I'm so sorry for your loss!! Do you know that there is hope for your dead loved one? Well, the Bible makes a promise: “Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.” The Bible also says: “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.”—Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29. Can this be possible you may ask? Yes, Almighty God Jehovah has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. His Son, Jesus Christ himself said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. If you are interested in learning more, any one of Jehovah's Witnesses will be happy to help you with a free home Bible study. Again I'm so sorry for your loss!!

“ Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiastes 3:11. “Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts.”

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
