“ I hadn't seen Leonard in many years. After I found that he was working for my mother I thought that he'd grown up to be a fine young man. We joked and kidded with each other each time we saw each other at his place of employment and now his presence will be an absence that will be difficult to get over. May God Bless you all through your time of grieving and healing. Just remember that these things will take time and only God can heal a broken heart (I know I lost my baby brother right after his 18th birthday 3 years ago Sept.8) There will be good times and bad but just try to keep the good memories that you have of him to the fore front. My heart hurts for you all. God Bless you and be encouraged.##imported-begin##Nonna Kirby##imported-end##

“ My condolences goes out to the family and friends of Mr. Brown. No doubt losing a love one in death is painful and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable. However, Christ Jesus taught that someday "all those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) Yes, it is truly heartwarming to learn that Almighty God Jehovah and his son Jesus yearns to bring our love ones back to life. May this be a source of comfort to you.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my sympathy to the family on the death of your loved one. Death is such a terrible event in our lives which sooner or later touches us all. May it comfort you to know that Jehovah God intends to put a permanent end to sickness and death, and all other tragic events that touches our lives. 1st Corinthians 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Very soon, God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, because these former things will have passed away." (Rev 21:3-5) May it comfort you to know that your loved one is in God's memory, and one day he will bring him back to life again to be reunited with your family.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
