

Leonard O. Webb

July 1, 1939 - March 18, 2002

Leonard was born July 1, 1939 in Alpoca, West Virginia to the late Frank Webb Sr., and Edna Banks. Leonard departed this life to be at home with the Lord on March 18, 2002 at Walter Reed Army Medical Center. As a child his family relocated to Baltimore, Md where Leonard attended Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School, later Leonard ventured off to Buffalo, New York where he met and married Shirley Drake and of this union six children were born. While living in Buffalo, Leonard was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company. Leonard subsequently returned to the Baltimore area where he met and married Sheryl A. Hamilton and of this union one, one child was born. As part of their life together they traveled extensively through Europe residing in Germany, where Leonard became an employee of the Federal Government. Leonard retired from the Walter Reed commissary after 20 years of service. Leonard leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Sheryl; his children, Leonard (Jackie), Darrell, Sheila, Brian, Timothy Jeffery (Regina), Leonard Jr., Devery (Barbara) Jacob and Demone; two sisters, Gertie and Reaky; one brother, Frank (Lena); aunt, Marie Woods; one uncle, John Banks; sixteen grandchildren, three great grandchildren and one deceased grandchild, Lanaya Webb; five sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, eleven nieces, seven nephews, one great niece and two great nephews. He also leaves a host of loving relatives and friends

“ To Sheryl and family, It was a privilege and an honor to be Leonard's doctor for this short time. He was truly a sweet man, and I think his death has affected me more than the death of any other patient. I am grateful that he died in peace and comfort, and is now in a better place. God be with you all at this difficult time. -Dr. Erik Rupard##imported-begin##Erik Rupard##imported-end##
