“ I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is the most difficult thing we deal with. I wanted to take this time to express my condolences to you for your loss. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's word the Bible. (Psalms 83:18) The Bible promises: "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) Jehovah God assures us that our dear dead loved ones will receive a resurrection to a restored beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 65:21,22) You can have the hope of being reunited with your dear dead loved ones here on earth. (John 5:28,29) The Bible also assures us: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Death will be removed from all the earth. Tears of sorrow will vanish. No one will die from natural causes or weep. These are promises that will soon be a reality. (Hebrews 6:18) May you find comfort from these promises. And may Jehovah God of all comfort be with you. (2Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ My condolences to family and friends of dear Mr. Scales. The death of a loved one can be very painful, no matter how long their years. Please take comfort in Jesus' Own Words when He speaks to us of a Resurrection of those now asleep in death (John 5:28-29). This will be to a restored Paradise Earth (Psalms 37:9-11,29) where sickness, death and sorrow will be gone forever (Rev. 21:4). These promises are no mere fantasy because Our Heavenly Father has said these things in His Word The Bible, and He always keeps His promises! (Titus 1:2) For more comforting Bible based information on how to cope with the death of a loved one please go to www.jw.org. Mrs. D. ward Detroit, Michigan
