

Leonard S. Truesdale

March 23, 1954 - March 1, 2011

LEONARD STANLEY TRUESDALE, beloved son of the late Gwendolyn Scott Truesdale and Joseph Truesdale, Sr., was born on March 23, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was called home to glory on Tuesday, March 1, 2011, after struggling with health complications that led to his departure.

He received his education in the Baltimore Public School System. During his elementary years in school, he was rated a border line genius. He enlisted into the United States Navy, completing boot camp at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, ILL. He was then assigned to duty on board the USS Nimitz {CVN-68}. After his return to civilian life he furthered his education receiving certificates of certification at the following schools; RETS School of Electronics, culinary Arts School of Baltimore City; Welding school, and the Peabody Institute where he learned to read and write music.

Leonard was highly skilled and talented, he was a contestant for the Guinness World Record for playing the drums. He was a very kind and giving person whom was always there to help in any way he could. It is said that he would give the shirt off his back if need be.

Leonard leaves to mourn and cherish his loving memory; daughter, Mychelle N. Harris; son, Leonard O. Truesdale; two brothers, Michael Truesdale and Myron Fleming,; three sisters, Diana Owens, Jacqueline C. Brooks and Benita

Johnson; five brothers- in-law; five sisters- in- law; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. During this difficult time, may family and friends be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4 "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
