

Leroy Stafford Arrington

October 14, 1950 - January 20, 2023

Leroy Stanford Arrington was born on October 19, 1950 to Wilson Arrington and Cherry Harvey Arrington in Halifax, North Carolina. The 8th of 9 children, Leroy was preceded in death by his brothers Wilson (Will) James (Bo) and his sister Odelia (Deah) Belinda (Cindy Lou) Marion (Ime) Rosetta (Rose) and his son "Tay" Webb.

Having been brought up in church by his mother , who was known for her faith, Leroy had a very strong connection to God, and became a Minister in tth Church of God in Christ.

Leroy was a very hard-working man. Before becomming a machne operater at Sparrow's Point, where he worked for 37 years, Leroy had jobs as an assistant foreman at Koester's Bakery, and a mechanic for Firestone.

After retiring from Sparrow's Point , Leroy also drove for MTA Mobility and Woodlawn Motor Coach. He was the type of man who gave his all to everything he did; but more importantly, he gave his all to his friends and loved ones.

Leroy was called to home on January 20, 2023, after battling cancer and other illnesses. Leroy is survived by his wife Valerie, his son Paul, his brother Pastor Larry (Sput) and sister-in-law Noreter; brothers-in-law Tony, Kevin and Eddie; sisters-in-laws, Sindia, Essie, Brenda and Angie; his mother-in-law Little Mama; grandchildren Toney, Colyn, Trinity, Nia Simone, Aubrey, Ayden, and Adonis; as well as a host of cousins, nieces and nephews.
