

Leroy Elliott

February 2, 1956 - June 1, 2002

On June 1, 2002, Leroy Elliott departed his life suddenly. "Tubby" as his loved ones knew him, was born in Rockhill, South Carolina on December 2, 1956. He attended Emmett Scott Elementary School and later came to Baltimore, Maryland, where he attended Woodbourne High School. After graduation, he joined the United States Marine Corps in 1974. Upon separation from the Marine Corps, he became a roofer at Wallace and Gale for numerous years. Tubby was an intelligent, loving, friendly and gentleperson, who loved to smile. He would give a helping hand to anyone in need. Some of his interest included home improvement, reading, preparing income taxes and harmonizing songs. Tubby is greatly loved and will be truly missed by his family and friends. Tubby leaves to mourn: his mother, Dorothy Elliott; two children, Trina and Tyrone Elliott; five grandchildren; three sisters, Darlene, Bernice and Angela Elliott; and aunt and uncle, Ruby and Herman Hayes; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives. We love you Tubby!
