

Leroy Jackson

January 16, 1939 - October 5, 2003

Leroy Jackson, son of Mary and Robert Jackson, was born on January 16, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on October 5, 2003 after a hard battle with his illness. Leroy attended East Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked on numerous building projects throughout Baltimore City as a construction worker. Leroy was also known as Stonewall Jackson or Bird. He was married to Catherine Jackson (divorced) and a second fiancée' Louise Crosby. He had two sisters and six brothers; three siblings preceded him in death, Patricia, Beatrice and Carthell. His favorite pastimes were cooking, listening to music, attending family gatherings and watching TV. He later realized in life how important the value of life really is, therefore he changed his life's priorities. Leroy leaves to cherish his memory: five brothers, Roland, Robert (known as Fatbo), Ralph, Clifton and Earl (known as Don), two sisters-in-law, Bertha and Janie Jackson; sons and daughters of which Patricia, Sabina and Renae shared time with him and Antonio stood by him in a time of need. He leaves a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. The Bible gives us comfort in the most difficult of times. At John 5: 28,29 it says, "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." I hope this message brings you comfort in these difficult times and gives you hope for a promising future.##imported-begin##Joseph Hill, Jr.##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
