

Leroy McPherson Cotman

June 26, 1940 - November 13, 2008

Leroy McPherson Cotman "Boo", slipped into eternal rest on November 13, 2008 at Bon Secours Memorial Regional Medical Center. He was born on June 26, 1940 in Charles City, Virginia to the late Thomas and Emma Cotman. His brothers Bernard and Floyd Cotman preceded him in death. Leroy was educated in the Charles City County School System and accepted Christ at an early age. After serving in the U.S. Army, he devoted 35+ years of his adult life to being a loyal employee at Weyerhaeuser Company formerly Westvaco, from which he retired in 2002. Leroy was a kind, mild-mannered man with a quick wit and uncanny ability to memorize facts and trivia. He was known in the family as the "to go" person if anyone was experiencing challenges, remembering a date or answering a question. He read multiple newspapers per day and found pleasure just sitting outside enjoying nature. He especially enjoyed spending time with his sons and grandchildren. Leroy was lovingly called "Boo" by friends and family, and "Grandpa Boo" by his beloved grandchildren. Boo leaves to cherish his memories, his two loving and devoted sons, Craig (Monica) and Kyle (Christina); four loving grandchildren, Alexander, Andrew, Kyle Jr. and Kyla Cotman; one step-granddaughter, Jade Baine; four devoted brothers, Robert Brown, Russell (Yvonne), Welton (Vanessa), and Thomas (Sharon) Cotman; two devoted sisters, Lillian Brown (James) and Bernadine Cotman; one sister-in-law, Brenda Cotman; one aunt, Helen Tyler; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

“ To the family, I offer my condolences. It is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
