

Leroy Moses Sr.

November 1, 1941 - September 1, 2011

LEROY "ROY" MOSES, son of the late Marcie Harris and the late Roy Harris, was born on November 1, 1941 in Darlington South Carolina. Roy moved to Baltimore, Maryland at a young age. He departed this life on September 1, 2011 after a lengthy illness.

Roy received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon completion of his education he became a full-time employee with the Pepsi Cola Company. Roy also worked at the Rag Factor for many years.

Roy made many friends. He was a happy, fun-loving person. He was also a great story teller, always making his family and friends laugh. You could always catch Roy on Monday's with a Pepsi in his hand and watching those Ravens play football. He really enjoyed his oldie but goodie music, patting those feet and snapping his hand and smoking his Newports. He was just a great guy.

Roy leaves to cherish his memory: devoted fiends, Charlotte Johnson; two children; one grandchild; two brothers, Wilson Rhames and Billy Rhames, and a host of cousin and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ You don't know me but as one of Jehovah's Witnesses I would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 2yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again! Any Jehovah's Witnesses that you meet would love to show you in the Bible the truth about death! Again so sorry for your loss!!
