

Leroy Pernell Simms

April 19, 1965 - July 6, 2022

Leroy “Pernell” Simms was born on April 19, 1965, in Baltimore, MD, to Brendadine Simms-Scott and the late Leroy Parker Simms. Early Wednesday morning, he peacefully slipped away at St. Agnes Hospital with his mother, son, and sister, Bernadette by his side.

Pernell, as he was affectionately known, was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. He worked at A&P Food Warehouse, Northrop Grumman, Abacus, Future Care, and various other jobs. He was a jack of all trades and he loved working on cars whether it was repairing them or detailing. He cherished spending time with his family and was always ready for Sunday dinners, fun, and watching TV. He would be one of the siblings to remind us of something that we did as kids or share a family experience that would cause us all to reflect and tell more of the memory. He loved to make you laugh by saying some wise crack or a joke and tell you what you should do.

He enjoyed watching movies, westerns, sitcoms, and anything CSI, NCIS, and the like. Pernell was always looking forward to the next road trip of when he would spend time at his sister’s house in Waldorf as that was his vacation home. He enjoyed having his son close to him and loved his grandsons. His favorite person to call and agitate was his niece, Brenda, and her two boys, of which he would do anything for.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Patricia Simms; his father, Leroy Simms; and both grandmothers, Rachel McNeil, and Delores Bivens. Pernell leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Brendadine Simms-Scott, and Stepfather, Ralph Scott; his son, Akeem Simms; two grandsons, Khalil and Khareem Simms; his oldest brother, Reginald McNeil (Nancy) of Chicago, IL; two sisters, Rev. Antoinette Walker (Steven) of Waldorf, MD, and Bernadette McAdams (Lamont) of Baltimore, MD; three nephews, Wesley Scott, Brandon McNeil (Chicago) and Steven Walker, Jr.; three nieces, Elyssa McNeil (California), Brenda Scott, and Taraji Walker; two great-nephews, Bryce and Brave Scott-Jones, and one great-niece, Charley Scott; two special cousins, Del'Monica and Dylan June. He also leaves to cherish his memory two aunts, Theresa Lynch (Kenneth) and Gwendolyn June; one uncle, James Gordon (Beatrice), and a host of cousins, friends, and acquaintances.
