

Leroy Witherspoon

April 11, 1949 - February 6, 2003

Our beloved brother, uncle and friend, Leroy Witherspoon, the son of the late Martin and Louise Witherspoon, was born on April 11, 1949, in Sumter, South Carolina. He departed this life on February 6, 2003, after a lengthy illness to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Roy was educated in South Carolina. After completing his education he relocated to Baltimore in 1965 to begin a career with Rockland Bleach and Dye Company as a Machine Operator. He was employed for twenty years with the company. He then began a new career in home improvement, which he worked until his health failed. Even then he continued to do small jobs for friends and family. He really enjoyed his work. He attended new Psalmist Baptist Church. Roy had a big heart filled with lots of love and he enjoyed every minute he spent with his family. He enjoyed fishing, cars and being with his nieces and nephews. In his most painful days of his illness, he always had a smile and the willingness to live. If you knew Roy, you loved him. He leaves to cherish his memory: a son, William Brockington; five sisters, Odell, Lilaree, Alberta, Carrie and Pamela; one brother, Belin; a devoted friend, Veronda Mazyck; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ At this difficult time so many people care deeply about what you're going through, though no one can truly understand all that you feel...But please remember how much we care, and know you're surrounded by warm, supportive thoughts and wishes for strength and peace today, and in all the days to come.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
