“ Leslie, I told you the last time we spoke, how proud of you I was. You have been through a lot and have always been tough through it all.

Thank you for always being you, 100% of the time. I will cherish every memory...all the crazy ones lol. I pray that you are at peace and I pray for your beautiful children, all of them! I know they are going to make you proud, as you are with them and watch over them. They have gained an Angel!

*I love you girl!

Sharing my deepest condolences, prayers, and support to the family. I did not personally know Leslie, however, I do know her sister Lori, whom I love as my very own sister. There are no words of comfort that I can offer. Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4)
