

Leslie Anderson

August 17, 1961 - July 23, 2006

August 17, 1961 was a special day in the life of Evelyn Walker Anderson and the late Sydney Anderson; that was the day they became the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy named Leslie who was born in Richmond, Virginia. He was fondly called "Les". Les was the brother of Pattie and Cheryl (deceased). He received Christ at an early age and was baptized at Shiloh Baptist Church. Les attended the Richmond public schools where he graduated from John Marshall High School. Prior to his employment at Doe & Ingalls of Virginia as a Warehouse Supervisor, he worked at Reynolds Metals Company in Corporate General Services for a number of years. While at Reynolds, he met his future bride. Les married the former Francene Williams on September 26, 1987. This union joined him with Nicole, Jerry, and Monica. Les was a sound family man. He was a loving husband, devoted father, a proud and patient "PaPa", devoted son, and loyal brother. Les had many hobbies which included golfing, bowling and playing pool with his friends; playing video games with his cousins; and spending time with family and friends. Les was such a nice person with a ready smile. Most people looked at Les as one of the most genuine people you could meet. Les never met a stranger! On Sunday, July 23, 2006, God called Les home after a brief battle with cancer. God saw that he was getting tired, and he did what he thought was best. He came and stood beside him and whispered "Les, come on home with me and rest". Les leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, Francene Anderson; two daughters, Nicole Byrdsong (James) and Monica Williams; one son, Jerry Williams; four grandchildren, Kevin, Marquis, Justin and Miles; mother, Evelyn Walker Anderson; sister, Pattie Anderson; father and mother-in-law, Robert and Madeline Dockery; brother and sister-in-law, Fred and Marsha Johnson; two uncles, Harry and Rudolph Walker; three nieces, Ashley Eboni Anderson and Jessica Johnson; three nephews, Bryan Anderson, Jordan Wilkerson and Douglas Johnson (Stacey); and a host of cousins and lifetime friends, among them loyal and compassionate neighbors of Sterling Forest and Mitchel Tree Subdivisions. Les was also blessed with his "Guardian Angel" Nathaniel Ford and all his care givers.

“ My condolences to Mr. Anderson's family. Please know that God's grace will keep you at this time as there is no sorrow that God cannot heal. I met Les and his mother at Memorial Regional Medical Center by God's design and I know that he loves the Lord. To be absent from the body is to present with the Lord. Matt. 5:4 says "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted. Revelation 21 says for Les there are no more tears, no pain and no sorrow. Celebrate his life and cherish the legacy he left for each of you.##imported-begin##Sallie J. Tillar##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Acts 24:15 lovingly informs us- "there is going to be a resurrection". Death is our enemy that will one day be destroyed. (First Corinthians 15:26) May you receive much comfort and strength as you reflect on these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to you for such a sad loss of your loved one. Although I didn't know him personally, just looking at that wonderful smile tells me that he was a beautiful person. We are all so precious in Jehovah's eyes, and he loves us beyond anything we could even imagine. John 3:16 says, "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life". This is why Jesus gave his precious life willingly so that we could gain life and be free from the scourge of sickness and death. One day all in the grave will hear the voice of the son of God, and they will be raised back to life. May it comfort you to know that we will soon be reunited with our dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##R

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Anderson's ! May I send my condolencse to you all, the family & friends. Death breaks the circle of life. Leslie was 45 years young and loved by so many. Life take a toll on all of us in these last days as the bible say Death will be brought to nothing at 1 Cor15:26. May all the happmemorises of Leslie stay close a the time of the resurrestion is nearing when many will come as John1122-44 say, with the hope of never ever dying again.My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
