

Leslie A. Clark

August 25, 1955 - December 18, 2022

LESLIE ALICE CLARK, daughter of the late Nancy and Hezekiah Clark, was born on August 25, 1955. She was the baby of nine children.

Leslie received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She then joined Job Corps to take up cooking and sewing. She later worked in several restaurants around Baltimore and also worked at Mercy Hospital and Union Memorial Hospital in the food service department.

Leslie never married or had children; however, she enjoyed family gatherings and cooking. She was very devoted to her nieces and nephews. Leslie enjoyed taking them to school and picking them up, and she would go to school programs with the family. Leslie also made sure the kids had snacks and goodies for lunch each week. Leslie also enjoyed helping friends and neighbors by going to the store, cleaning and washing clothes. She had a very loving way about her and would speak to everyone. But she did her own thing (smile).

Leslie is preceded in death by six sisters (Nadine Cotton, Carolyn Shields, Gertrude Green, Denice Clark, Dawn Clark and Donna Plumer) and two brothers (Rodney Clark and Steven Clark). She leaves to cherish her memory: her sister, Jacqueline Mason; aunt, Jacqueline Campbell; very good friend for many years, Katie; eleven nieces and nephews, thirty- three great-nieces and -nephews, fifteen great-great-nieces and -nephews, a host of other family and friends.
