Leslie E. Johnson, was born on November 13, 1943 to Lester Diggs and Lillian Mason in Waverly, Va. She departed this life Thursday, January 24, 2019. She was preceded in death by her husband, Frank Everett Johnson; daughter, Tina Mason and grand-daughter, Tyiesha Parker. She leaves to cherish her loving memory, her daughters, Sibrena and Sileana Stevenson, Deanna Sylvia (Bradley); sons, Garnell (Tabitha), Bryant and Terrance Stevenson; 22 grandchildren, 27 great grandchildren; sister, Roberta Fields (Barry); brother, Stonewall Mason (Roberta); and a host of other relatives and friends.

Leslie retired from Kmart after many years of dedicated service. After retirement, Leslie did what came naturally and began caring for others through child care and housekeeping. Her biggest gift to us all was her unconditional love. She showed us that through her cooking, honesty and hard work. Leslie's strength was and remains unmatched. She was the rock of the family who always told it like it is. She taught us all to be accountable and strong despite our circumstances. We will all miss her greatly and continue to love her fiercely.

“ You've always treated me as if I were your child and not a step-child and for that I am eternally grateful. I don't know how other step-parents are with their step-children but I can only go by how you were with me and you fussed at me when I didn't act right. You even said you were proud of the woman I became. You will forever be in my heart and I will always love you. When my mom died and I felt like I had no one you assured me that you were always there for me. You made sure that I knew my siblings growing up. You would pick me up and make sure my siblings and I spent time together. You will forever be my other mother. Thank you for always including me and loving me. Renea
