

Lester Capri Myles

November 5, 1956 - October 8, 2009

LESTER CAPRI MYLES was born November 5, 1956 to Celess Myles and the late Lillian Myles in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life Thursday October 8, 2009. He graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in 1973. As a young man he practiced and played for the Baltimore City Recreation and Parks and the AAU Mid-Atlantic Basketball League, during the summer months. Basketball was the sport of his life. He played in tournaments across the state of Maryland and all the neighboring states. He received many awards and trophies. One of his favorite pastimes was attending Dunbar High School basketball games, and the Washington Wizards games. Lester Myles developed a reputation as a hard worker. As a career, he enrolled in Dundalk Community College in the ironworker apprenticeship program for two years which he successfully completed with honors. He became a member of the Ironworkers Local #16, in Dundalk, Maryland, where he helped build many of the noteworthy landmarks across the city and states. His brother, Arbar Myles, preceded him in passing from this life. He leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Kendra Celeste Myles; two grandsons, Reuven and Judah; three brothers, Recco El-Amin, John Savage, Tyron Myles; two sisters, Celesstine McCoy and Tynette Myles; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws, neighbors, co-workers and friends.
