

Lester Harper

April 15, 1950 - April 1, 2009

LESTER HARPER JR. (lovingly known as (Junior of Wild Child), was born on April 15, 1950 in North Carolina to the late Lizzie and Lester Sr. God dispatched His angels to guide him to eternal rest on April 1, 2009. Lester received his education in the Baltimore school system. He grew up in the Baptist faith. Lester was a loving and joyful person to be around, and he touched the hearts of everyone he knew. He was extremely affectionate towards his nephews Donny and Donnell providing unconditional love. Lester had a few hobbies, and reading was one. Whenever you saw him sitting alone, you could be sure he had a book a newspaper nearby. He would hold a conversation with anyone. He loved to talk and discuss the news. Later in life he had begun to travel. He loved to talk about his trips to Jamaica and Texas, and he always said he was going back. Lester always watched old westerns on television. He could name just about every old western actor and which movies they starred in. He also loved basketball. Sunday was "Game Day" as he would say. Sunday is for rest and watching the games. He was also a member of the N.A. group "To Live and Die in L.A.," which gave him strength and courage to keep trying. Lester was a gentle man with a big heart and a love for family. He leaves to cherish his memory: his brother, Donnie Harper Sr.; sister, Sharon Lewis; three nephews, Donny Jr., Donnell Sr. and Devin Lewis; niece, Tearria White; three great-nieces, Shawnkia Bowman, Tatyonna Harper and Nevaeh Burdun; three great-nephews, Damonta Smith, Donnell Jr. and Tyqua Gill; six uncles, Herman and Earl Harper of Ayden, North Carolina, Jimmy Harper of Austin, Texas, Cleveland, Charles and Johnny Harper of Baltimore, Maryland; a loving long-time companion, Yvonne Redd; and godson, Dondre White. He also leaves to cherish him a host of other family members and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Lester Harper

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May I send my condolences. I see recently your circle of life was broken after 59 years. It pain and hurt our heart when we loss a dear love one . Life is not fair, however in the near future our heavenly father will make all things New, Rev.21:3-5. I am looking forward to the happening and I know you all are too. May the cherish times shared with Lester support you all in the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of your dear one. Losing a loved one in death is so hard to come to terms with, and we wonder why did my loved one have to go? It's truly like an unreality and so unfair. Our loving heavenly father feels the same way, because he never desired for us to get sick or die ever. That is why he purposes to end all sickness and death forever, and bring the dead ones back to life. 1st Cor 15:26 tells us: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Also John 5:28,29 lets us know that all those who are in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out." May you be comforted and strengthened by God's wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May you find comfort knowing that God is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves Psalms 34:18.##imported-begin##B. Dixon##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ What can I say, my heart is so heavy. From the time I first met Wildchild he held a space in my heart. God truly has an angel with him now. I will miss those big bright eyes dancing around in his head when he laugh. Family be strong, please stick together because you know that is how he would have wanted it.##imported-begin##Denice Jones##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM