“ Hello! Peterson's ! May I take this time to express my condolences to u all. I know the feeling of losing a dear loved one in death too. It breaks the family circle badly when it strike. Mr. Levi was 82 when he died. The bible tell us that some will live to be 70, others 80 because of special mightiness at Ps.90:10. The time is coming when no one will ever die again, great news indeed to hear. My all the happy times spent with Mr. Levi stay close to you all hearts. Sincerely, Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian##imported-end##

“ May God comfort you in the loss of your loved one. Focus on the wonderful times you shared with Levi, and may these be a source of comfort to you. Whenever you are really feeling down, focus on the resurrection hope, which will bring our loved ones back to us. At John 11,25 Jesus said, I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever exercises faith in me even though he dies, will come to life. All of the promises of Jehovah God will come true by means of the son who we must put our faith in for salvation. Isaiah 55,10,11 and John 3,16. May the thought of one day seeing your loved one again bring joy to your hearts, and help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states, "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Isaiah 26:19 gives a loving promise- "Your dead ones will live...they will rise up." That will take place in a peaceful new world with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. {Revelation 21:3-5, 2Peter 3:13} May you receive much comfort from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Holy Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
