

Lewis Edward Black, Sr.

January 7, 1939 - January 7, 2021

Lewis E. Black, Sr. was born on January 4, 1939 to William R. Black and Elnora Brown, and entered rest on Thursday, January 7th, 2021.

He was preceded in death by his parents, William Black and Elnora Brown ; wife, Mary E. Black, a son Louis Burrell, three brothers, Leon Black, Thomas Black, Nathaniel Black and one grandson, Kenneth L. Black.

Lewis (fondly know as ED) joined Parrish Hill Baptist Church at a very young age. Lewis retired after 35 years of service from Colonial Williamsburg Foundation as a blacksmith. Lewis will always be remembered for his contagious laugh, and his love for hunting, fishing, and most of all cooking crabs with his family and friends.

He leaves to cherish his memories five children, Lewis Black, Jr. (Ollie) of Hopewell, VA, Bonita Jackson (Roy), Peggy Black (Albert) and Penny Jefferson (Lester) of Charles City, Margaret Ross (Melvin) of Maryland. Two brothers, William Black (Alberta), Kenneth Black (Cherri), of Charles City. Three sisters, Clarice Brown, Helen Braxton (William), Ann Williams (Randolph) of Charles City. Three sisters-in-law, Emma Black, Lillian Black and Irene Harris-Elmer, Shirley Harris and very special friends, Helen Charity, Kirra Charity. A host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends “ Family, it's moments like these that makes us truly thankful to God for allowing us to belong to loving families. You all will recall so many memories made during your childhood with dad, mom and other family and friends. He's, they are never really gone for they live within our hearts. Trust God to give you peace.
