

Lewis Lee Cochran Jr.

October 22, 1959 - July 13, 2017

LEWIS LEE COCHRAN, JR., known to many as “Smokey”, son of the late Mildred Bradford and Lewis L. Cochran II, born October 22, 1959, was suddenly called home to be eternally with God.

Lewis “Smokey” Cochran, Jr. studied in the Baltimore City Public School System, and had various trades throughout his journey in life, Lewis “Smokey” Cochran, Jr. often was the everyday fix it, handyman guy. You could call on “Smokey” and he'd be there if he could help.

Lewis “SMOKEY” Cochran Jr. will be deeply missed by family and friends. Anyone he came in contract with, he touched with his heart of gold and his soul full of love. Lewis “Smokey” Cochran, Jr. was a golden guy that knew everyone, cherished his family, and cared deeply for his friends. SMOKEY loved telling jokes. He had a free spirit with personality like no one you will ever meet in life.

Lewis “SMOKEY” Cochran, Jr. leaves to mourn: his wife, Collette Cochran; his children, Delores, Lewis III)Man-Man, Angela Cochran; step-son, Bryant Jones; stepdaughter, Lanessa Thomas; grandchildren, Samiya, Eli, Kendall Cochran, Hakiersa, Deaunttae, Dequane Kamonta Jones, Michael Gambrell, Brittney Tallie, Dontay Ockimey, Andre, Joshua Hall and Stephanie Franklin; siblings, Vanessa Cochran, Angela Jones, Leonard Cochran, (preceded in
