

Lewis J. Kearney

October 6, 1913 - January 4, 2006

LEWIS JUNIOUS KEARNEY was born to the late James W. and Hattie B. Kearney on October 6, 1913 in Warren County, Littleton, North Carolina. Lewis was the fifth of eight children. He attended the Johnson Public School in the North Carolina School System. He accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, was baptized, and became a member of the Odell Baptist Church at an early age. Having moved to Baltimore as a young man, in 1940, Lewis took a position with the Federal Government at Fort Holabird. In 1954, the job moved him to the Tobyhanna Army Depot in Tobyhanna, Pennsylvania. Due to the lack of available jobs, he commuted for sixteen years until his retirement in 1970, after 30 years of service. Lewis was joined in marriage to Eunice Mae Harris in 1942 and from this union three daughters were born. Lewis spent his life working for his loved ones. He was a devoted father, grandfather, great grandfather, and great-great grandfather. Upon moving to Baltimore, he joined the Trinity Baptist Church in 1941 and served diligently until his illness. He held membership as an Usher, Finance Member, Trustee, Progressive Men, Church School and Diaconate Ministry. He was ordained as a deacon in 1977 under Rev. Dr. William C. Calhoun Sr. Because of his dedication to his job and to his church, he was presented with numerous awards and plaques during his service to each. Affectionately known as "Grand Pop" by his Grands, Great Grands and Great-Great Grands, he always had time to show and teach, be it sewing, painting, repairing, etc. He was the reason the family joined Trinity because as the daughters got older, we all wanted to "Go to church with Daddy” rather than with Mother and to the church she was attending around the corner. He took time to teach each daughter how to sew and sew well. Daddy took pride in his quilt making from crib bed to king size. So many of us have and will keep warm for years with those quilts. He also enjoyed baking, making bread pudding, apple pies, and his famous apple cobbler which was enjoyed by our family, as well as, many church members. He leaves to cherish his memory: three daughters, Cecelia Coley, Viletta Johnson and Marion Anderson; one sister, Pattie Morris; five grandchildren, Dale Moon-Brown, Ivy Brown, Maxwell Anderson, Leon Coley and Marni Cooper; eleven great grandchildren, Nakeisha Robinson, Asia Dixon, Charles Brown, Mercedes Coley, Howard Rice, Maxine Anderson, Faith Cooper, A.J. Cooper and Taylor Anderson; one great-great granddaughter, Sidney Norman, two devoted sons-in-law, Leon Coley and John Johnson; three sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Lewis J. Kearney

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hi ! Kearney's ! May I send my condolences to you all. Mr. Lewis lived a great long life as Ps.90:10 say , some would live to be 70, other because of mightiness 80, he pass both years. We can look forward to the time when no one will ever die again. Our family circle will not be broken by death. I am look forward to that time and I know you all are too. May these few thoughts be uplifting to read. Sincerely, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My sincere sympathy goes out to your family. May you find comfort in the scriptures about God's promise of a resurrection. Revelations 21:4 says that Almighty God is going to wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more..... With death gone forever we can look forward to paradise conditions.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Death is never easy and many do not understand, but the Bible gives us a hope at Acts chapter 24 and verse 15, please read in your Bible what that passage says and my hope is that it will give you the comfort that only our God can give. The resurrection hope is truly something to look forward to and a time when conditions on the earth will be a paradise, unlike what we see now as Revelation chapter 21 and verses 1-5 tell us. Hope that this brings you some comfort.##imported-begin##D E Nelson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM