“ *To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that he "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. “ My heartfelt condolences to your family at this time. Death is certainly a most painful event that unfortunately, we all have to contend with at present, but very soon Almighty God promises to do away with death forever. After many years those who have died are forgotten by many, but Jehovah God always has them in his memory; because he is a loving caring heavenly father who loves us very much. Jesus gave us an illustration of how much God cares for us. At Luke 12:6,7 he said; "Five sparrows sell for two coins of small value, do they not? "But even the hairs of your heads are all numbered. "Have no fear, you are worth more than many sparrows." So Jehovah really feels our pain when we lose a loved one, and it is his desire to bring them back to life. That is why he promises at Rev.21,4 :That he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. Also in verse 5 he says, "Look! "I am making all things new. So dear ones I know you are very saddend by your loss, and your hearts are heavy. But rest assured, God's promise of a ressurection will surely take place, and we will be able to be with our loved ones again, providing that we are obedient to his word. I pray that this wonderful hope sustains you, and help you to cope at thls trying time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
