“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. Remember that the dead are not forgotten by God, and he will one day restore life back to all who are in his memory. This is why John 5:28,29 speaks about the memorial tombs where the dead are sleeping, and one day they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of those tombs. May you be comforted by this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ *Please accept my condolences. I am sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. Please know that God offers comfort during difficult times like these. Please find comfort in the words at Isaiah 26:19, Psalms 37:29, and the 11th Chapter of John. May you find solace in the God of all comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was not part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in Prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22). With deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection (John 5:28,29).What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
